

INTERESTING LINKS

This page contains a list of interesting links to external sites seen as relevant to our mission and cause.

If you have a suggestion for an additional link please send a message to the Webmaster.

---

Royal Air Forces Association - Part of the RAF familie

QRZ - Information about the PI4C radio station

Art Starratt's World War II Experiences - His story.....As told by his children

Caribbean aircrew in the RAF during WW2 - A record of West Indian volunteers who served in the RAF during the WW2

Traces of War - TracesOfWar.com tries to provide as much neutral and independent information as possible regarding places of interest that are related to the Second World War.

Lincolnshire Aviation Heritage Centre - A private museum founded by the brothers Fred and Harold Panton. A Lancaster is being restored here to flying condition.

Battle of Britain Memorial Flight - The mission of the RAF BBMF is to maintain the priceless artefacts of our national heritage in airworthy condition

Imperial War Museums - IWM is a family of five museums recording and showcasing experiences of modern conflict.

Flying legends - Flying Legends is truly a jewel in the worldwide historic aircraft scene's crown

Planes of Fame - Planes of Fame Air Museum was founded by Edward T. Maloney in Claremont, California PIMA Air & Space Museum - The Pima Air & Space Museum opened in 1976 and today is the third largest aviation museum in the world. The museum has 80 acres, exhibiting more than 300 aircraft and 125,000 artifacts (not including the archives and photo collection).